METALLICA

The capital's art fraternity converged at Gallerie Nyva to celebrate the launch of sculptor Rajesh Kumar Sharma's solo exhibition, "Indian Cola and Other Stories".

The artwork was displayed interestingly along the foyer and gallery and guests stopped to notice the intricacies in NH2, that had birds on the charpoy. They marvelled at the artist's sculptural installations in bronze, brass and other mediums.

Kids were hooked onto the Bagh Bakri sculpture that also had the game, Bagh Chal, on one side and an old monument on the other, little realising that they themselves were part of the thought-provoking installation.

Enquiries about these from guests like Sakti Burman and Aruna Bhowmick, kept the sculptor on his toes at the party
