

'Within Reach VIII' exhibition showcases talent of emerging artists

□ Art, Books, Culture, National □ May 3, 2017 □ Daily World

New Delhi, May 3 : An eclectic mix of affordable artworks by some of India's young and emerging artists is being showcased during the eighth edition of "Within Reach VIII" exhibition.

Presented by Gallerie Nvya, the art works are in varied genres and media — paintings and sculptures and puts together a collection of original art work; affordable and appealing in nature to suit homes as well as corporate offices.

Curated by Meher Kalra, the exhibition series, which had began in 2010, had a special preview on Tuesday at the gallery which was attended by well known artist Pramesh Maity.

Works of artists like Sandeep Jigdung, Aditi Saigal, Lal Bahadur Singh, Niraja Bhuwal, Bhuwal Prasad and Sanchit Raj are being showcased during the exhibition.

"Through the show we provide a platform for emerging artists in a space shared with more established names; affirm aesthetic sensibility, and celebrate the creative impulse that weaves color and form into variegated manifestations of visual reality," Tripat Kalra, Founder – Director, Gallerie Nvya said in a statement.

"We have chosen a wide array of artists for this exhibition – different genres, styles, strokes. Some artists are already prominent in their own right and others have the potential to be known for their talent in the future," said Kalra, also the gallery's Executive Director.

The exhibition is open for public viewing through the month.