The Yellow Diary band is coming to enthrall the Delhi audience with the vision to bring back the genre of rock blended with thought-provoking poetry. The band started off when Himonshu and Rajan met and started working on Marz. They got Vaibhav on guitar and released it in October 2015.

Then came Stuart and Sahil to handle the rhythmic responsibilities with bass and drums respectively.

Ever since, the band has been doing many gigs in the indie circuit. In October 2017,

The Yellow Diary got signed by Sony Music India and released their debut EP Marz with three songs Afzai, Kashmir and the re-released version of Marz. The all-boy band's members hail from varied backgrounds but have one thing in common — their passion for music.
