

Bollywood's popular lyricist and scriptwriter Javed Akhtar was recently in the capital to attend the ongoing eighth edition of India Art Fair.

He was spotted having an interesting conversation with Tripat Kalra of Gallerie Nvya at the fair.

The talented writer also showed keen interest in art and was seen checking the works of modern masters like M.F. Husain and H.S. Raza.