

Tales of Yore, a group art exhibition, is a fluent march across the sweep of time, aiming to capture nimble human fancies through emblematic art. The exhibition showcases works by leading artists and sculptors like K G Subramanyan, Sandeep Jigdung, K S Radhakrishnan, Madhvi Parekh, Arpana Caur, Sanjay Bhattacharya and Paresh Maity, among others. WHEN: Till February 28 TIME: 11 am to 7 pm WHERE: Gallery Navya, Saket.

Oneness, a group art exhibition, goes far beyond unity, diversity and uniformity. The artists through their works show an amalgamation of people with different thoughts and ideas creating art, and the very soul of being humane. WHEN: February 1 to 7 TIME: 11 am to 7 pm VENUE: The All India Arts And Crafts Society, 1 Rafi Marg.

WATCH OUT

Akar Prakar Gallery presents A Wired Ecology, a solo exhibition presenting works by Kolkata-based artist Jayashree Chakravarty. In her works, she is drawn to lines which she perceives, in nature everything appears to be wired and connected. WHEN: Till February 22 TIME: 11 am to 7 pm WHERE: Akar Prakar gallery, D-43, Defence Colony.

Kitaab is a solo exhibition of three-dimensional paintings by artist Sumit Mishra. The exhibition aims to show that books are not simply inanimate objects but eloquent containers of meaning imbued with lives of their own. WHEN: February 1 to 7 TIME: 11 am to 7 pm WHERE: AIFACS Art Gallery, Rafi Marg.

Nowhere, an exhibition, brings together work of eight contemporary South Asian artists who collaborated with the traditional Paubha artists exploring themes like responsibility of power, and history and the use and enjoyment of it in spaces. WHEN: Till February 28 TIME: 11 am to 7 pm WHERE: Gallery Latitude 28.